3. Assessor Recruitment

Recruitment of the 2019 AAUT Assessors opened on the 1st of July.

We are seeking nominations from all institutional DVCA's (or equivalent) for suitably experienced assessors, and will also be contacting those assessors who participated last year.

If you have not been as assessor before, but are interested in being involved, please get in touch with your DVCA and let them know.

Some benefits of being an assessor include:

- Networking
- Professional development
- Improving the quality and status of teaching and learning in higher education
- Increased understanding of how to write an effective award application
- The ability to further contribute to the sector - to "give back"
